ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

All applications for enrolment are assessed on a case-by-case basis. As a general guide you should:

- Have well developed written and verbal communication skills and basic numeracy skills. Upon receipt of your enrolment form you will be asked to complete a short Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) test. We will use the results of this test to gauge your suitability for the course and to identify if you will benefit from any additional support. Adapt is able to assist participants whom experience LLN issues, or a disability. For your own benefit we encourage you to disclose if flexible learning strategies may be required.
- Possess sound computer operating skills
- Have previously completed a Certificate III or higher level qualification or have at least 12 months experience in a relevant management or supervisory role.
- Be currently employed by an organisation who can provide opportunities to complete practical components of the course in the workplace.

DURATION

You will have up to 2 years to complete but can progress at any pace. As a guide someone spending 8hrs per week on assessment, could expect to complete the course in approximately 6 - 8 months.

ONLINE OR CORRESPONDENCE?

For the theory component of your course, you may choose:

- Online: benefit from an easy to navigate elearning course. The online course is interactive, meaning less readings and more visually engaging resources.
- Correspondence: receive course resources in a hardcopy format. Resources are presented in a student portfolio for easy management. Assessment is provided on a USB stick.

STUDY MODE

Self-paced study means that you can study at times and locations that suit you. No assessment due dates and no timetabled lectures or webinars. You can choose to study online using an interactive student portal or via correspondence with all materials posted out to you. Fast track your study or take your time – the choice is yours.

Blended study has all the perks of self-paced study with the addition of face-to-face sessions with your trainer. You can book as many or as few face-to-face sessions as you like.

Classroom study is available on request to Corporate groups. This study mode enables us to develop custom projects specific to the workplace. Students develop their leadership skills through a series of team building activities and work based projects.

STUDENT SUPPORT

Regardless of the study mode you select, you will have unlimited access to your trainer through phone, email and instant messaging. We pride ourselves on having quick response times to every query. Delivery and assessment of this course can be customised. Please discuss your options with Adapt to ensure that we have created the course that best suits you.

2. Call us on 1300 380 335 to enrol over the phone

COURSE COMMENCEMENT

Upon receipt of your enrolment form an Adapt Education staff member will contact you to conduct a pre-enrolment interview and to confirm your enrolment. Prior to commencing your course you will be asked to complete a Training Needs Analysis (TNA). This will assist us to select the best course structure for you.

COURSE INDUCTION

All Adapt Education students will receive a course induction. Inductions may be completed face-to-face, on Skype, or over the phone. During your induction, your trainer will: take time to explain how to navigate your course resources and assessments; and provide you with some guidance on the depth and content expected in some of the different assessments.

ASSESSMENT

Your assessment consists of two key areas:

- Theory assessment: text activities, written questions, projects, evidence portfolios.
- Practical assessment: includes demonstration of your skills in the workplace. Recorded as observations by your supervisor, practical placement person or trainer.

EQUIPMENT REQUIREMENTS

It is an expectation that you will have a computer and access to the internet to complete the assessment requirements of the course. Please discuss with Adapt if this is an issue as strategies can be put in place to assist.

COURSE COMPLETION

On successful completion of all course requirements you will be issued a Nationally Recognised BSB51915 Diploma of Leadership and Management. All students completing or discontinuing their studies will be required to complete a student survey.
